About the Author

Cathy and Faustine Duwicquet are a mother-daughter team based in the South of France, who specialize in punch needle, knitting, crochet, and weaving.

Cathy is a mother of three grown children who loves all things hand made. She enjoys painting on silk, pottery, and decoupage, but finds herself returning to her first loves: crochet and knitting.

Faustine has been a fan of creative hobbies since she was a small child with a little stand at every year's Christmas market. The urge to create has never left her and she devotes much of her free time to crafting. In recent years she has rediscovered how much she enjoys working with wool through her weaving.
