About the author:

Linka Neumann grew up in Oslo in a family who loved to travel; outdoor activities were a big part of her childhood. Linka also loved to draw and paint, but she was the only member of her family who didn't knit! This changed after she worked in a nursing home where the staff and the patients knitted – Linka made her first sweater, and so began a new chapter in her life.

Linka eventually began to design her own garments, and her first sweater, the Wilderness Sweater with its distinctive dog-paw-print motif, is still one of her most popular. She has published three books – her first, published in 2019, was on the bestseller list for over 30 weeks and has been translated into several languages.

In 2020, Linka opened her online store, linkaneumann.com – she now has almost 150,000 followers on Instagram (@linka.neumann) and 14,000 on Facebook. In 2024 she won two prestigious Knit Awards: 'People's Favourite' and 'Collaboration of the Year', for her work with the Norwegian Society for the Conservation of Nature, @naturvern.

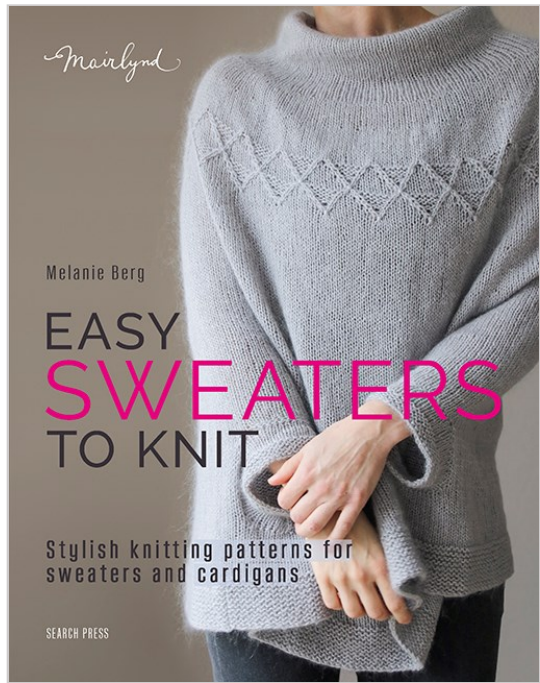

She and her husband live in the village of Åsgreina, Norway, with their two dogs.

About the author:

Navia was founded in 2004 as a business-college project for the then 22-year-old Óli Kristian á Torkilshøggi, now the CEO.

Navia is a family-run company that continues a long tradition of sheep-rearing and wool-spinning. Óli Kristian's great-grandmother, Suffia Gregersen, employed women to knit for her and sold sweaters in the Faroese village of Syðrugøta, where the family had a spinning mill; and the family's farm had a flock of 200 sheep, so Óli learned about wool at an early age.

The first items produced by Navia were 1-, 2- and 3-ply yarns in six natural colours, and a small amount of plain-coloured sock wool. These were sold to yarn shops, cottage industry associations and even to small supermarkets all over the country.

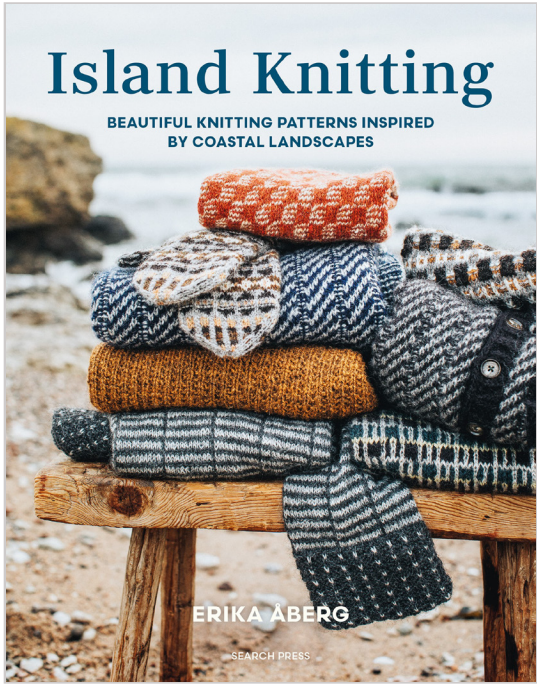

In the years that followed, Navia grew bigger and produced a wider range of yarns. A new knitting book came out each year, more colours were added to the palette of yarn colours, and the yarn began to be sold overseas. Since 2004 Navia has grown from a one-woman enterprise with only a few different types of yarn to a company exporting yarn worldwide.

Sew Your Own Nursery Rhyme: Wheels on the Bus 9781800922914

About the author:

Sarah Simi is a knitter extraordinaire and the creator, director and producer of nudinits, the world's first all-knitted animation. She learnt to knit from a young age, mainly Starsky cardigans, Clangers and even an outfit for her guinea pig that it sensibly refused to wear. After working as a stylist, writer and designer for many years, an idea formulated in Sarah's mind for a knitted village full of eccentric British characters. At first the village was more of a traditional affair but after reading an article about free hiking (hiking in the nude) Sarah's villagers lost their clothes and nudinits was born.

Sarah then collaborated with animator Ed Hartwell to make her first film, 'Tickled Pink', which went on to win a Best Comedy and a Best Animation award, and nudinits have never looked back. They've now become an online hit with further films, awards and lots of nudinit products to enjoy including knitting pattern books, calendars and cards.

Together, Sarah and Ed now run Woolly Vision, a stop-motion animation company in London which specializes in making animation with wool, fabric and felt. Their films are multi-award winning and have been shown at film festivals all around the world.

From the creator, director and producer of nudinits, the world's first all-knitted animation, comes this brand-new naughty knitting book...

Discover 19 cheeky knitting patterns for accessories and homewares, all inspired by the saucy scenes and bare-bottomed characters from Sarah Simi's much-loved Woolly Bush village.

- 19 brand-new nudinits knitting patterns: Woolly Bush village has returned, and this time the knits are to wear or display in your home!
- Suitable for knitters of all abilities: Core techniques and information and a guide to key tools and materials are included.
- The perfect rude craft gift book for family and friends: From naughty aprons and pillows to cheeky wall hangings and garden kneelers, there's frisky fun for everyone.
- British humour at its best: From the innuendos and cheeky elderly relatives to 70s wallpaper and curtain-twitching neighbours, this book captures the odd, slightly tawdry and occasionally bawdy nature of some of Britain's citizens!
- Nudinits is a famous naughty brand: Over a decade old, the brand started on YouTube with its stop-motion animation Tickled Pink, introducing the bare-bottomed characters of Woolly Bush (videos streamed more than 250,000 times). Becoming an internet sensation, Nudinits has branched into knitting pattern books, calendars, and more.

About the authors:

Anne Sohler-Fournel likes to draw and tinker. She loves her painter's palette, her pencils, her scissors, her glue and her toolbox. But above all, she loves threads and beads of all shapes and colors!

Agnès Delage-Calvet loves embroidery, drawing, threads and fabrics, colored pencils, images of all kinds... She is always working creatively, and never gets bored! Her passions for all things creative have become her work: she has participated in DMC (thread) collaborations, and has appeared on TV shows, in numerous magazines and has been involved in the publication of around thirty books for various publishers. Agnès has created many of the beaded and threaded bracelets that appear in The Bracelet Bible.

Françoise Vauzeilles is often found with a ball of wool in one hand, an embroidery needle, a tube of glue and a pair of scissors in the other... and a camera around her neck! Also passionate about DIY and baking, Françoise is a jack-of-all-trades. She has published numerous books on subjects including macramé, crochet and knitting.

About the author:

Laura Sinikka Wilhelm learnt to appreciate good design as a child, so it was only natural for her to choose a profession in design once she had finished school. She studied textiles in Germany and Finland, graduating in 1997 with a degree in the subject from the University of Applied Sciences in Reutlingen, Germany. Since then she has been self-employed and works as a freelance fashion and textile designer, as well as a guest lecturer and course instructor in Germany and Finland. In 2009, her first sewing book was published.

Since then, she has published a total of 11 books and works as an author for publishers in Germany, Finland and Switzerland. She has also worked on television and, since January 2011, has been a regular sewing expert on the SWR show Kaffee oder Tee (Coffee or Tea) in Germany. With a Finnish mother, she feels very attached to her second home. She has always found this connection to the North to be greatly enriching, and this is unmistakably reflected in her work.

Discover 18 contemporary, unisex sewing projects made from heavy duty fabrics that are stylish, practical and designed to last a lifetime.

Every project in this stunning book features heavy duty fabrics, including canvas, waxed cotton, leather and upholstery-weight: fabrics that are functional but elegant, age gracefully, acquire character in the process, and can be used and loved for a lifetime.

Contained within are all the techniques needed, explained using clear, simple steps - including advice on choosing the right stitches, needles and threads for your heavyweight fabrics - along with simple, easy-to-use patterns.

- Perfect for confident sewists: A great next step for those looking to explore more challenging fabrics.
- 18 stylish, unisex sewing projects: Contemporary designs that blend form and function.
- Super-simple and easy-to-follow: Contains clear step-by-step techniques and plenty of images.
- Great for sustainable sewists: Upcycling, repurposing and making sustainable items has long been a hot topic.
- Established author with a loyal following: Trusted expertise from a respected voice in the sewing community.

About the author:

Jo Lochhead is the founder and creative director of The Crafty Kit Company, an award winning business which produces soft craft kits inspired by the beautiful landscape, flora and fauna of East Lothian, where the business is based. She comes from a creative background: her father was a watercolour artist, her brother runs a successful ceramics business, and her mother still knits, sews and crochets.

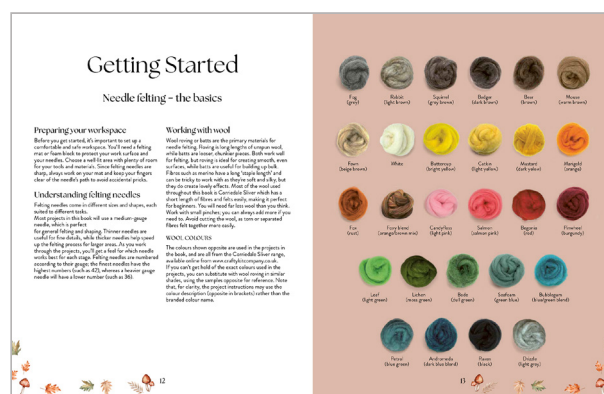

Jo discovered the joy of needle felting in 2017 and has shared the techniques she has learned with thousands of people since, through online workshops, social media (@craftykitcompany) and her website: www.craftykitcompany.co.uk

Create 12 stunning needle-felted woodland-themed works of art, using simple wool-painting and mixed-media techniques.

New from popular crafter and best-selling author Jo Lochhead, creator of the Crafty Kit Company (@craftykitcompany).

Inspired by the Scottish countryside and a worldwide palette of woodlands, wildlife and open skies, all 12 delightful projects reflect the rich textures and colours of nature. You'll find everything from autumn leaves to woodland animals, with each design capturing a little piece of outdoor beauty to place inside your home.

- Great for needle-felting beginners or multi-crafters: The mix of simple techniques, including needle felting, watercolour on fabric and simple stitching, has great broad appeal.
- Popular craft: Needle felting is an increasingly popular craft - it's inexpensive, portable and accessible to all.
- Full-size templates included: Everything you need to get started is ready to go.
- Popular theme: From foxes to foliage, woodland scenes continue to captivate crafters of all ages.
- Well-known author in the crafting world: Jo's company The Crafty Kit Company (@craftykitcompany) works with a number of licensed brands and produces and sells cross stitch, embroidery and needle felting kits all over the world.

About the author:

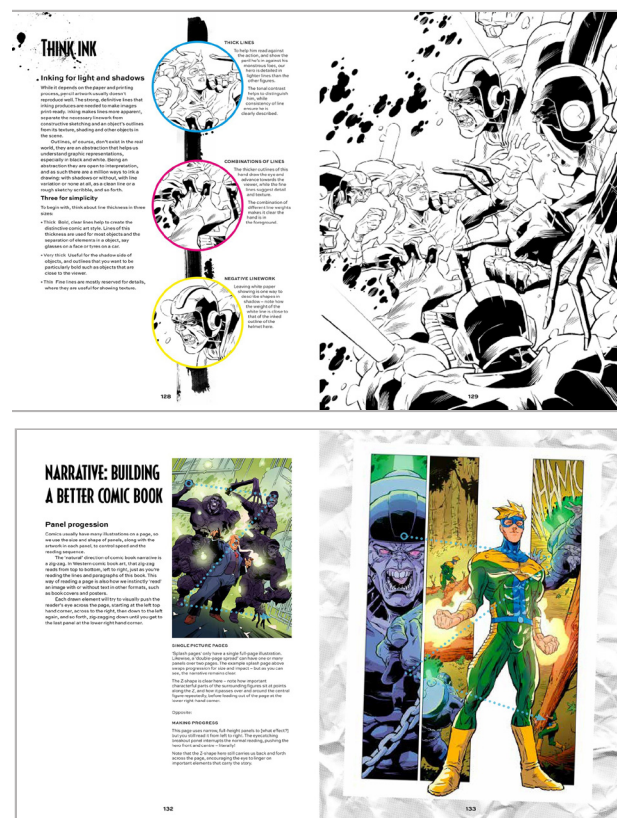

Professional comic book and storyboard artist Sam Hart has more than 30 years' experience drawing superheroes and action-packed stories about characters and properties including Judge Dredd, Robin Hood, King Arthur, Joan of Arc, Power Rangers, VR Troopers and Starship Troopers. After pursuing evil-doers in the pages of UK fanzines, he worked with colourist extraordinaire John Higgins and freelanced for many years in the world of magazine illustration and TV storyboards.

Living in Brazil, he created superheroes for advertising agencies, published his own comics and collaborated with Antony Johnston to illustrate the spy story The Coldest City, adapted to film in 2017 as Atomic Blonde, starring Oscar winner Charlize Theron. Since 2004 Sam has regularly taught drawing and comic book art, first at libraries in São Paulo, Quanta Academia de Artes and then Axis School of Visual Effects. He presently features on the Domestika platform, with courses on visual narrative and inking for comic books. Now back in England, Sam is married, has two daughters and, as a side-quest, is researching the ancient and mysterious technique of watercolours.

Create your own jaw-dropping comic art characters who burst off the page with personality and power!

This is the essential, practical guide to creating believable, unique characters, authored by Sam Hart - professional comic book artist of over 30 years.

- Perfect for visual learners: Focused and clear, ideal for teens and young adults.
- Fast, fun results: Packed with punchy step-by-step tutorials for quick, effective character creation.
- No specialist tools required: Just pencils, pens, and paper are all you need to get started.
- Popular subject matter: Comic book superheroes are timeless icons, boosted by ongoing Marvel and DC blockbusters worldwide.
- Renowned author: Sam Hart's impressive portfolio includes graphic novels that inspired the Charlize Theron film Atomic Blonde. He teaches at Quanta Academia de Artes, Axis School of Visual Effects, and on Domestika, specializing in comic book inking and visual narrative.
