Description

Young crafters will become confident at sewing projects from stitched felt flowers to a cute crocheted bag.

This hands-on sewing book shows inquisitive children how to do basic needlecraft. They will discover how to knit a simple doll's scarf and find out how to create a colourful patchwork cushion. Award-winning author Jane Bull combines her unique arty style and excellent instructions to teach children how to knit, sew, crochet, appliqué, embroider, and patchwork. This book contains more than 20 fun-filled projects, each with clear instructions and step-by-step photos that are easy to follow.

Children can make beautiful stitched items for themselves or to use as gifts for friends and family. Stitch-by-Stitch will inspire a new generation of children who are just starting out on their creative journey of making things from scratch. They will finally find something fun to do with those spare beads and buttons that are lying around!
