

Dorothy Wood

Publication	June 2011
Price	£16.99
ISBN	9780715338704
Format	Paperback / softback 270 x 210mm
Extent	144 pages
Illustrations	Illustrations, color
Publisher	F&W Media
Classification	WFJ
Series

Main Description

The follow-up title to the best-selling The Beaders' Bible, which has sold over 70,000 copies worldwide, this book features 9 technique-focused chapters and 12 step-by-step projects. Author Dorothy Wood has written over 30 craft titles and is very well known among beaders, who actively seek out her books. An indispensable guide to making bead jewellery covering all the essential beading techniques, from choosing colours and designing jewellery, to bead stringing, making findings and bead embroidery. There are easy-to-follow step-by-step instructions, clear diagrams and stunning photography combine to create a must-have resource for expert and beginner beaders alike.

Key Selling Points

- Master essential techniques to make beautiful, long-lasting jewelry
- Gain practical advice about planning and colour allowing you to create original and exciting jewelry
- Learn about the exciting array of beads available

Author

Dorothy Wood is a talented and experienced bead and craft maker and designer, as well as a well-respected craft author. Since completing a course in Advanced Embroidery and Textiles at the prestigious Goldsmith's College, London, she has written more than 20 craft books and writes for magazines featuring beading and craft. Dorothy is an Ambassador for Swarovski Elements, and finds innovative ways to combine these beautiful crystals into her work.

INFORMATION

	Beaders' Bible Dorothy Wood 9780715323007		Small Beads, Big Jewellery Jean Power 9781782210214		Compendium of Beading Techniques Jean Power 9781844484362
--	--	--	--	--	--