Description

A collection of 39 original, creative designs for knitted rugs. Includes a variety of styles and techniques, including modular rugs, rugs made from I-cord, rugs that emphasize color and texture, and rugs made from repurposed materials. Patterns are easy and quick to knit as well as interesting, incorporating crossover fiber techniques such as crocheting, appliqué, weaving, and more.

About the Author

Nola Neidbreder has been teaching fiber art and handwork for eighteen years from her studio in St. Louis, Missouri, and across the country. She has written articles and projects for Home Companion and Rug Hooking magazines, as well as several books, and has appeared on local and national television news programs.

Linda Pietz learned to knit at the age of four and has spent the last forty-plus years passing on her love of knitting and other crafts to others through classes and workshops. She designs patterns for Bucilla, Dimensions, Cat's Cradle and other companies, has been featured in several books, and has written articles for Rug Hooking magazine and other national magazines. She lives in northern California.
