Description

Any paper - magazines, newspapers, wrapping paper, copy paper - can be upcycled into a variety of shapes and sizes of paper beads that can be used to make colourful, unique pieces of jewellery that no one would guess are made from paper.

Fashioned from thin strips of paper and painted in a variety of ways, the beads you make can then be used to make elegant drop earrings, beaded necklaces, and bracelets. Combine them with other unique beads and charms for even more looks. Includes instructions on how to create the paper beads, as well as how to use metal findings, leather cords, and other materials to create professional-looking designs.

About the Author

Keiko Sakamoto worked as a floral designer for over 10 years before launching her jewelry business. In 1999, she opened her shop called Beads Cafe. Her vision was to create a place where people could learn jewelry making in a relaxed setting similar to a cafe. Sakamoto's work has been featured on television and in magazines.
