Main Description

The debut book by popular toy designer Shelly Down aka Gingermelon, My Felt Doll shows sewers of all abilities how to make adorable soft dolls using the most basic of materials and skills. Using just felt sheets and a handful of simple notions, readers will learn to sew the basic doll pattern and then discover 11 imaginative variations on the design – from a mermaid to a ballerina, from a princess to a movie star and from a schoolgirl to a circus ringmaster – guaranteed to delight little girls everywhere. With no hems to sew and all the stitching done by hand, the book makes a great entry point to sewing dolls for beginners and even children.

Key Selling Points

- Super easy yet super cute doll sewing patterns made from felt – the most accessible beginner-friendly material there is
- No sewing machine required – only simple hand-stitching

Author

Michelle Down is a toy pattern designer, Etsy seller and blogger under the moniker Gingermelon. Her dolls and toys are inspired by the adorably sweet Chibis found in Japanese manga art. She designs and creates her dolls at home in beautiful British Columbia, Canada, surrounded by her collection of Blythe dolls, vintage children's books, stacks of gorgeous felts, buttons, beads, and embroidery threads.
