Description

A complete resource for furniture upholstery, regardless of your abilities, with easy-to-follow, illustrated instructions explaining all the essential upholstery techniques, from covering buttons to stripping and upholstering entire chairs. Build your skills at your own pace, with advice on the basics such as choosing materials and tools for the job and estimating yardage, as well as more complex upholstery techniques. It features invaluable advice on what to look for when buying second-hand furniture, teaching you what's fixable and what's not as well as how to avoid costly mistakes by choosing the right stitches, techniques and textiles for the job.

About the Author

Cherry Dobson has been a tutor of upholstery for over 30 years. She has worked on numerous commissions, gaining much hands-on experience, and holds a distinction in Furniture Advanced Studies from London Guildhall University. Cherry now lives in Somerset, UK where she teaches both day and residential courses.
