Description

Turn your kitchen into a waste-free zone with these crafty solutions for everything from 'unpaper' towels to citrus antibacterial wipes and handmade dishcloths.

The zero waste movement is huge and this collection will help you to craft your own zero waste solutions – create beeswax wraps for storing food, make your own paper caddy liners and create herb pots from empty bottles.

Whether you're a committed crafter or new to making, there is something for you everyone no matter what your skill level.

Choose from projects and tutorials for the kitchen including sewing, crochet, upcycling and reuse ideas. Upcycling and reuse gurus Emma and Christine show you how to turn your kitchen into a zero-waste zone with step-by-step instructions and some clever crafting. Packed full of original ideas, Zero Waste: Kitchen will help you to live the zero-waste way and improve your efforts to reduce, reuse and recycle while at the same time having fun.

About the Author

With her unique approach and unusual designs, Emma Friedlander-Collins has established herself as an innovative crochet designer and online success. She is passionate about sustainability and continually works to discover ways to use craft and making to create communities and inspire others. She also wrangles this into her other work as a content creator for LoveCrafts and lecturer in Fashion Communication. She contributes regularly to Mollie Makes, Simply Crochet and many other craft magazines.

Christine Leech has been an avid crafter since childhood. She has over 15 years of experience art directing leading magazines and a successful freelance illustration career working on titles including New Woman, Marie Claire, Look and Fabulous. Just over two years ago Christine helped to launch a quarterly magazine for Hobbycraft, the craft superstore.
