Description

Bring a little colour and fun into your embroidery with the debut book from Hello! Hooray! creator Clare Albans.

Featuring 24 gorgeous projects, this book is about learning to really enjoy the creative process, whether you are an experienced stitcher or just starting out.

From projects you can complete in an afternoon to bigger makes to take your time over, you'll enjoy every step of the making process as you focus on feeling good through being creative. The finished makes will bring colour and joy to your home, workspace and wardrobe. Each project includes step-by-step instructions, beautiful photos and inspirational ideas. So take time to be creative with this colourful, feel-good embroidery book!

About the Author

Clare Albans is a mum, maker and blogger living in Newcastle upon Tyne, UK. A musician and teacher by trade, she found a creative outlet from her day job in crafting. She started her blog, Hello! Hooray! in 2012 to share a variety of craft projects as well as recipes and lifestyle posts. Hello! Hooray! has been featured in publications such as Craftseller magazine, and Bibelot Magazine and Clare has also appeared on BBC Radio 4's Woman's Hour.

In 2020, Clare began working on Hello! Hooray! full-time, and now teaches embroidery workshops in and around Newcastle, as well as selling her patterns, kits and stitched items on her website. She is passionate about sharing the joys of hand embroidery and encouraging people to take time out to be creative! Visit Clare's website www.hellohooray.com to learn more about her work.
