Description

This inspirational book features ten beautiful floral embroidery designs. Each project features easy-to-follow steps, detailed photographic walk-throughs and templates to trace on your fabric. Starting with basic projects for complete beginners, you'll build on your embroidery skills by learning new stitches and techniques. Once you've mastered all the stitches, you'll be ready to tackle the more detailed and intricate designs. Stitched in beautiful muted colours, each project is inspired by a Shakespearean quote and celebrates the author's love of flowers. This is a beautiful modern take on an ages-old traditional skill.

About the Author

Teagan Olivia Sturmer is an embroidery artist and writer living on the feisty shores of Lake Superior in the US. When she isn't stitching or writing, she directs and acts in local theatre productions. She lives with her husband Brice, who owns and operates a coffee roastery in their hometown. Teagan is never without a needle and thread, and has been known to carry Shakespeare around with her wherever she goes.
