Description

Cart your quilting fabric, books, groceries and more in this sturdy and spacious bag that will become your new go-to holdall. It features the 49er Fever quilt from our very own co-founder of C&T Publishing, Carolie Hensley. It's a heavy-duty, oversize tote bag with easy-access, interior pockets, shoulder straps, and sturdy stitching. The bottom panel is reinforced for standing upright and carrying books, sewing projects, and more.

About the Author

Carolie Hensley is one of the founders of the Cotton Patch and has been the sole proprietor for the past 26 years. In 1983, when one of Carolie's instructors was unable to find anyone to publish her work, Carolie and her husband created C(arolie) & T(om) Publishing to fill this void. Keeping it in the family, C&T Publishing is now owned by their sons Todd and Tony, who continue the tradition of providing useful and beautiful books on quilting.
