Description

Stripes is a beautiful collection of 20 striped knitwear projects from leading designer Veera Välimäki and knitting experts Laine, exploring the world's favourite pattern.

For years, Veera Välimäki has been fascinated by playing with colours and textures – and striping with them. In Stripes, she encourages you to discover the endless possibilities, incredible techniques and stunning effects of striped knitwear, with patterns including sweaters, cardigans and shawls, as well as a relaxed dress, a beanie and your new favourite pair of socks. Featuring beautiful photography, this book – and its knits – are an ode to contemporary design, exuding a sense of quiet, timeless confidence. Stripes is another Laine title that is destined to become a classic for knitters everywhere. Knitting is more than just knit, knit, purl. It is a feeling.

About the Author

Laine is a Nordic knit and lifestyle magazine based in Finland. They cherish natural fibres, slow living, local craftsmanship and beautiful, simple things in life. Their intention is to inspire all to gather and share, and to be part of a community of like-minded knitters, makers and thinkers from near and far. Follow them on Instagram @lainepublishing
