Author

Jessica Palmer studied Illustration at Kingston University. One day, in a life drawing class, an innovative tutor took the charcoal out of her hand, gave her a pair of scissors and said, 'Cut it out!' Her passion for papercutting was born. Her love of detail inspired her to use a scalpel to 'draw'. She is now a visiting artist in galleries and museums in London, Bath and Bristol, including the V&A and the National Portrait Gallery. She runs papercutting events linked to exhibitions, exhibits in London and the west of England and has produced commissions, exhibition pieces and book illustrations in the US.
