Main Description

In Beading for the Absolute Beginner, professional beadwork artists and teachers, Liz Thornton and Jean Power, tell you everything you need to know to create beautiful, colourful beaded accessories – even if you've never tried before.

The techniques come with step-by-step instructions and the spiral, hands-free format enable you to practice and master each technique more easily. The book covers all the equipment and tools, terminology and techniques and also features a selection of attractive, simple projects specially designed for the beginner.

Key Selling Points

- A reasonably priced, basic guide to beading for people with no previous experience
- Clear, step-by-step photography and no-nonsense, easy-to-follow text
- Small size and wire-bound format make this an extremely handy little book to carry around and use

Author

Liz Thornton is a beadwork artist with a passion for teaching. A founding member of The Beadworkers Guild, she co-edited the Guild's Introduction to Beadwork books and edited its Journal for three years. She is co-author of Beading for Beginners. www.lizthornton.com
