

How to Paint Atmospheric Landscapes in Acrylics

FRASER SCARFE

Publication	February 2017
Price	£19.99
ISBN	9781782212836
Format	Hardback 280 x 216 mm
Extent	192 pages
Illustrations	Colour illustrations throughout
Publisher	Search Press
Classification	Acrylics
BIC CODE/S	WFA
SALES REGIONS	WORLD

Description

An exciting new talent, Fraser Scarfe's moody and expressive landscapes combine the best of the traditional approach with the benefit of modern materials. This book will appeal to acrylic artists and those looking to transition from oils, pastels and watercolours alike. Following the award-winning artist through the year, readers will find productive and inspiring ways to paint from deepest winter to midsummer while they learn to engage with their subject.

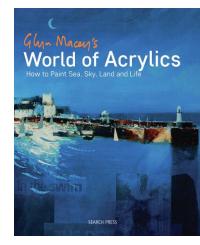

Key Selling Points

- Award-winning author
- Innovative year-round approach
- Variety of inspirational landscapes in a popular medium

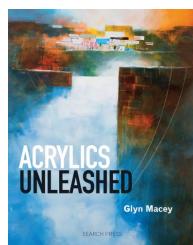

About The Author

Born in Lincoln in 1986, Fraser Scarfe grew up in Lincolnshire and, after completing a foundation course in Art and Design, began his career as a landscape painter, drawing his inspiration from his Lincolnshire surroundings. In 2008, he was awarded the SAA 'Artist of the Year' award, and in the same year he was Artist in Residence at Lincoln Cathedral. His work has been exhibited in prestigious art galleries all over the UK, including the Princes Drawing School Final Show at Christies, and is held in private collections in the UK, Europe and the USA. Fraser aims to convey through paint the actual experience of being in a place, always trying to avoid the clichés and pitfalls inherent in landscape art. His practice is based upon a strong foundation in drawing and strict observation.

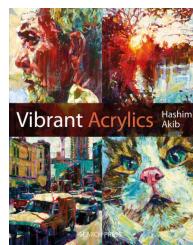

Related Titles

9781782211174

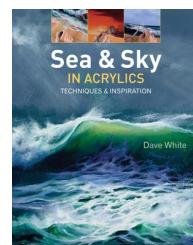

9781844487967

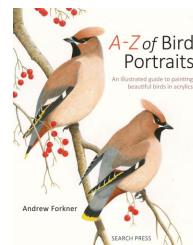

9781844486977

9781782213260

9781782210672

9781782210023

ADVANCE INFORMATION