Description

This book has Paper Panda's very distinctive stamp on it and begins with a design section which takes the reader through a personal account of what inspires her, how she works, and how Paper Panda came about. The techniques involved in papercutting are fairly simple and easy to explain, and this is covered through step-by-step demos illustrating various techniques such as infilling. Each project consists of a template, which is reproduced at full-size at the back of the book, and a finished paper cut, together with some simple instructions.

Key Selling Points

- An inspirational book containing more than 20 beautiful papercut templates
- Simple enough for beginners and will also appeal to more experienced papercutters
- Includes a section describing Paper Panda's personal design inspiration

About The Author

Louise Firchau studied art and design, art history, illustration and typography and enjoyed card making, glass painting and sketching. In 2010 she started her own on-line company called Paper Panda, making typographical lyrical papercuts from recycled paper. In addition to her online shop, Louise has a strong online presence; she is on Twitter and Facebook (now over 261,000 likes and rising!), and has her own blog (Mutterings of a papery mind).
