Description

Following the immense success of the How to Draw: Animals bind-up published in 2011 – which has been reprinted 9 times and sold over 134,300 copies alone – producing another How to Draw bind-up seemed in order. Susie Hodge is a well-known artist and art historian, and outside Search Press has recently published two titles with Thames & Hudson, Art in Detail: 100 Masterpieces and Why is Art Full of Naked People? To date, Susie's How to Draw books have sold over 101,300 copies for Search Press, and has proven a natural choice as the next author to work with.

Her books which focus on drawing the human form exclusively have sold 44,400 copies – How to Draw: Faces has been the most popular, selling over 25,000 copies since its publication in 2013. For this bind-up, Faces, People, Babies & Children, People in Action and Hands & Feet will be combined to create a comprehensive guide on drawing all aspects and variations of the human body. From features like hands and faces, through to different ages and people on the go, this book breaks down the drawing process into easy steps using simple shapes like circles, ovals, rectangles and squares to create professional-looking drawings of people.

At just £12.99, readers will most definitely get their money's worth with such an extensive compendium.
