Description

Delve into the world of air-dry clay crafting with 20 beautiful, easy-to-make projects that are suitable for all skill levels. Air dry clay looks, feels and performs like traditional clay but requires no oven bake or fire; professional-looking ceramics can be made in the reader's own kitchen without the need for a kiln.

Each project comes with step-by-step photos and detailed, easy-to-follow instructions. The book also includes instructions for all the core techniques, plus traceable templates. In no time beautiful homewares and jewellery can be created that will be sure to impress.

About The Author

Fay De Winter is a London-based ceramicist, who has a BA in ceramic design from Central Saint Martins and an MA in contemporary craft from Farnham University for the Creative Arts. Fay loves to experiment with clay, exploring different perspectives of nature and travelling around the world. She believes objects tell stories of people's lives, often holding personal and collective meanings of a particular time, place and event. Since graduating Fay has participated in many events and exhibitions in England, China, Japan, Bali, Milan, Bahrain and the USA.
