Description

This bright and interesting introduction, from the author of Snitte: The Danish Art of Whittling, includes more than fifty activities at levels for beginners and up. Each project comes with easy-to-follow instructions, illustrations and diagrams plus inspiring full colour photographs. Along with their parents, children can craft a tumbling tower game, a racing car toy, a dolphin necklace or even a handy coat hook! Includes a section on practical steps to get started and advice on knife safety with children.

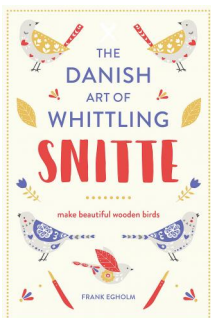

Key Selling Points

- Wood carving can help improve concentration, creativity and dexterity and is a hot trend following in the wake of hygge and lagom.
- Includes over fifty activities with easy-to-follow step-by-step instructions for fun projects to do with children.

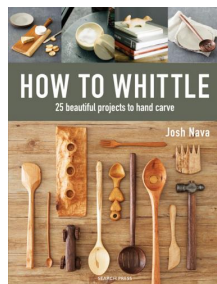

About The Author

Frank Egholm is a passionate woodsman who has been teaching woodworking in his native Denmark for a lifetime. Along with his wife (a teacher), they spend as much time as possible sharing their love of woodworking, teaching children and adults to enjoy the outdoor life and crafting wood.
