Description

Accomplished artist Marion Kaiser brings you this fun, beautiful and quirky guide to creating cute stone art.

Getting started couldn't be easier. It doesn't require expensive materials or complicated techniques – all you need is a stone, some acrylic paints and varnish! It's great for beginners, and more seasoned artists alike, and is the perfect family craft.

Discover 20 fun designs in a variety of styles. Projects include animals such as a panda, elephant and lizard, insects such as a ladybird and dragonfly, and birds such as a swan and a penguin. There are other lovely things to create too, such as a cottage, a mandala and a feather.

With clear step-by-step instructions accompanying each design, and beautiful photographs to inspire you, Painting Stones will soon have you on your way to creating your own rock art collection. You can even share the fun by creating a quirky treasure trail around your neighbourhood for passers-by to discover!

About the Author

Born in Berlin, Germany, Marion Kaiser trained and worked as a porcelain painter at KPM Berlin, one of the oldest porcelain manufacturers in Europe, for 15 years. After that, she became a freelance artist and now exhibits her work regularly. This book is the culmination of her experience of 30 years of stone painting and is her debut work.
