Description

Create a rainbow of cute and colourful crocheted flower babies using this simple beginner's guide.

Choose from 12 different flowers including Sam Sunflower, Hugo Hydrangea, Adam Allium and Diane Daffodil, all with flamboyant petals and friendly faces. All the flower babies use the same simple body pattern to which the characterful, colourful petals and leaves are added. All the techniques and stitches used are clearly illustrated, and the book also contains a handy guide to pattern reading.

Use your flower babies as keyrings, brooches, necklaces or just as fun toys for playtime!

About the Author

Bas den Braver's colourful crochet world is inspired by nature, plants and flowers. To balance his urban city life in Rotterdam he has painted the walls of his apartment green and surrounds himself with lots of house plants. Here his designs come to life. He has published several books of his colourful characters.
