About the Author

Corinne Lapiere studied Fine Art in France before moving to England to study Fashion Design. After working as a fashion designer for a few years, Corinne studied millinery, through which she discovered felt and its many qualities. In 2009 Corinne started her own craft business as a felt maker, and her company, based in Leeds, UK, now sells an expanding range of craft kits and patterns designed for adults and children. Corinne lives in Yorkshire with her three children and two cats. This is Corinne's fifth book, following her best-selling Folk Embroidered Felt Birds and Felt Animal Families.
