Description

Sew 18 cute and cuddly friends with stylish clothes and accessories to mix and match!

Step into the world of Rose Minuscule and discover the colourful 'Rainbow Club Friends', including Robinson and Oscar the lions, Amelie the rabbit, Theo the bear and Remy the dog. Learn to sew adorable, characterful faces; learn to stuff and sew up body parts; and create a stylish wardrobe for your new friends.

The gorgeous projects are shown step by step, with clear, full instructions, and all the patterns are included at actual size. Each member of the Rainbow Club has their own stylish outfit to sew, knit or crochet, and gorgeous accessories to make, including party hats, scarves, bags, a cape and even a hot air balloon! Some of the projects require small amounts of knitting and crochet – which give the projects a gorgeous textural appeal – but all the techniques you need are clearly photographed and explained.

About the Author

Laurence Bonnet is married to a nice grumpy bear. She owns two cats and is the mother of three little rabbits. Since she was little she has spent most of her time making, sewing, knitting, drawing... she never stops creating! So, in 2009, she created her first characters in fabric and soon after, Rose Minuscule was born. In her den not far from Paris, she installed a small workshop in which she spends most of her time sewing and knitting poetic stories. Her creations speak of childhood, of the difficulty of being small, of the power that small things have to reassure and make the world around them sweeter.
