Description

Planning a sewing getaway on your own or with friends? Patchwork USA includes over 20 road-trip inspired patchwork projects created just for you whether your retreat is for a day, a weekend or even a leisurely summer vacation with time for a long-term project. Because anticipation is sometimes the best part, Heidi Staples of sewing blog Fabric Mutt covers everything you need to know to prepare for takeoff, including helpful packing tips and organising your sewing space. The book is organised with travel in mind, featuring small, medium-sized, and large projects to be achieved on your perfect sewing retreat.

Day trips: Small projects including a Bookmobile Sleeve, Road Trip Pillow, Snapshot Needlebook, Sewing Bee Pincushion and Coffee Shop Coasters.

Weekend Getaways: Bigger projects including: a Patio Pillow, Beachcomber Pouch, Laundromat Coin Pouch, Kitchenette Set, Scout's Honour Pouch and a Colour Book.

Finally, Summer Vacations: Extended projects including a Big Bear Cabin Quilt, Palm Springs Bag, and three more quilts.

Key Selling Points

- Established author, pattern and fabric designer brings her second book to life.
- Book is organised like a road trip: preparing, organising, packing, and then making your project.

About the Author

Heidi Staples began her sewing blog, Fabric Mutt, in December 2011 and published her first book, Sew Organized for the Busy Girl, in March 2015. In 2016, she became a fabric designer for Penny Rose Fabrics/Riley Blake Designs. Staples holds a B.A. in Liberal Arts with an English concentration, as well as an M.A. in Teaching. After spending most of her life in Southern California, she moved to the Texas hill country in the summer of 2015, where she now sews, designs patterns and fabric, home-schools her daughters, and enjoys making beautiful things.
