Description

Starting with the basics, Sakurai shares her secrets on how to provide your characters and scenes with the right colors to accurately express their moods and actions. Here are just some of the key topics presented in this all-in-one handbook:

- How to select the right hair and eye colours to express the personality and mood of a character
- The basics of colour theory and how to pair the colour palette of a scene with the story being told
- Colour's role in conveying emotion--the essential colours used to capture a particular mood.

About the Author

Teruko Sakurai is CEO of Tokyo Colors, a company focusing on design, colour consulting and corporate training. She advises product and advertising clients as well as colour science instructors at universities and design schools, in addition to producing her own teaching manuals. In 2014, she was the first Japanese to be certified as an instructor in the Swedish National Standard Natural Colour System (NCS). She is a member of the Japan Colour Society, a colour design master with the International Colour Design Association, and a certified lecturer for the Colour Certification Association and Colourist Association of Japan. She's the author of two bestselling Tuttle guides: Japanese Color Harmony Dictionary: Modern Colors of Japan and Japanese Color Harmony Dictionary: Traditional Colors of Japan.
